Jardine Admits Balking Plans of Girl Strapped to Her Bed in Asylum

When William Jardine learned that his ward, Dorothy, owner of the estate that paid rent, paid his $10,000 salary, and afforded him more of life's luxuries than he had ever known before, had planned to elope, he went to a lawyer. Then he went to a doctor.

Then he put her in a madhouse, where she was for 18 months.

By his order she was deprived of the letters from her boy and girl friends. She was not permitted to communicate with the outside world.

So Mr. Jardine admitted on the witness stand today. He admitted she was sane when he put her there. But he thinks she is insane now. And this may be possible, for Boston American reporters who reached persons inside the asylum were told that the girl had been strapped to her bed to prevent her escape nights.

SENT HER TO MADHOUSE.
Jardine, who is resisting the action brought by the girl's uncle, John H. Jardine of Long Island, to oust him as guardian, said he knew he would lose control of the girl's property if she eloped. He talked

CANDIDATE WILSON ACCUSED OF THEFT

John H. Wilson, who was defeated as one of the Republican candidates for Representative from Ward 5 Tuesday—be polled 551 votes—was accused of larceny from his business associates in City Court today.

He is treasurer of the American Home Trust of Springfield street. John P. Murphy of No. 104 West Cedar street is president, and Michael A. Dunn of No. 614 West street, Worcester, is a trustee of the trust. They complained that Wilson took about $1,000 of the concern's funds improperly. Wilson, who lives at No. 34 Morris street, pleaded not guilty. The case was investigated by Special Officers Spenshah and Lynch, who prosecuted in court today, and presented witnesses.

LODGE BELIEVED TO HAVE CALLED FOR INVESTIGATION

Charges to the effect that election frauds were committed in Tuesday's election in connection with the balloting for United States Senator, were disclosed by Lawrence Leatheman, chief of the United States Department of Justice, today.

Boston's vote in the election, contained in 274 precinct boxes, is under a double guard in the sub-basement of the City Hall annex. There the heavy vaults are being guarded by a detective engaged for that purpose by Senator Lodge. Senator Lodge's detective is being watched in turn by a city patrolman assigned by Mayor Curley.

In the meantime, every agent in Mr. Leatheman's employ has been assigned to investigate the charges of fraud. The basis of the charges, or their source, is not known. It is thought, however, in view of the initiative taken by Senator Lodge in having a detective watch the ballots in the City Hall, that the charges emanate from his forces.

ELEVATED WINS IN MALDEN JITNEY WAR

After fighting five years for the discontinuance of the independent jitney line in Malden, the Boston Elevated will be unable to care for the increased traffic on its cars when the jitneys cease to run at midnight tonight. Manager Dana announced today the previous ten-minute normal service to the Maplewood section would be placed on a seven-minute basis and the five-minute rush service on a four-minute basis tomorrow.

Joseph Hart, owner of the jitney service, was today served with an order to discontinue the service tonight. This follows a refusal by the aldermen to license jitneys.

Curzon, Poincare and Mussolini to Confer

Paris, Nov. 10. (By the Associated Press.)—A conference between Premier Poincare and Lord Curzon, the British Foreign Secretary, and Premier Mussolini of Italy probably will be held in Paris the first of next week.

The purpose would be to present a solid front at Lausanne on the crisis of the peace terms.

Allies Demand Turks Repeal New Laws

Constantinople, Nov. 10. (By the Associated Press.)—The allied high commissioners landed a note to the Turkish government representative demanded the repeal of all recently adopted measures relating to customs, the public debt and currency and other services which affect the capitulations and stipulations of the Mudros armistice agreement of 1918.

Otherwise, says the note, the commissioners will be compelled to refer to their governments for necessary action.

The allied generals also arranged a meeting with Hafiz Pasha, the Turkish Governor, here, to whom they will submit minimum demands, the view of insuring the safety of troops and efficient control of the police and gendarmerie.

The commissioners will also discuss the situation at Chankay with the neutral zone.

Russia Offers "Moral Support" to Turks

Sig. Nov. 10 (By International News Service)—Soviet Russia has offered moral support to Turkey in the event of war against the allies, but indicated that she desired not to give actual military aid to the Turks, said a report from Moscow today.

The Kemalists were said to have put the frank question up to the Soviet government if it would support a Russo-Turk military convention if hostilities broke out.

SIMS REFUSES TO "SPILL THE BEANS"

Montreal, Nov. 10. — "It's silly smoke!" exclaimed Admiral W. S. Sims, U. S. N., retired, when asked to comment on refusal of the United States to participate in European conferences. "Do you want me to spill the beans again? I hope you know what spilling the beans means—I do."

Continuing in a more serious vein he said: "The only thing that will bring about the end of these terrible wars will be the pressure of the disgust of the world against savagery and carnage." He is here for a brief tour.

DEWARD BOOKS IN WOODHOUSE CONTEST

Burlington, Vt., Nov. 10.—Books, twenty-five years old, valued to the tune of $3,000, were brought into the Chittenden County Court to throw light on the financial status of Charles Woodhouse, whose wife, Mrs. Dorritt Van Dusen Stevens Woodhouse, is suing her millionaire parents-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Lorenzo E. Woodhouse, for $100,000 for the alienation of her husband's affections.

The court ordered these records produced after a long and bitter battle between Attorney Warren B. Austin, counsel for the plaintiff, and the four attorneys representing the wealthy defendants. One of the latter declared:

"You might as well try to bring in the bank vaults as the books covering the institution's financial transactions for the past twenty years."

SELLS OF BONDS.

Attorney Austin said he desired the records which would show the condition to Douglas Woodhouse's finances and would support the claim of the plaintiff that his fortune was "ruined" by his permit after his marriage so that he was left without funds and was unable to provide his wife with adequate support.

Attorney Austin demanded the books be produced after Arthur Hill, for thirty-three years connected with the Merchants' Bank, of which Lorenzo E. Woodhouse is president, had failed during a two-hour examination to furnish information sought by the plaintiff. During this examination Hill was ordered by Judge Moulton to answer "yes" or "no." Hill finally admitted he had turned money belonging to Douglas over to the latter's parents.

He said that about September 15 or 20, 1920, he delivered to Lorenzo Woodhouse at the Merchants' Bank stocks and bonds belonging to Douglas valued at $15,000, besides a wide variety of other securities of jewelry. He said he never received a receipt from Lorenzo Woodhouse.

It is expected the bank records may give an inkling to the wealth of the older Woodhouses, whose fortune has been estimated by Burlington residents at $15,000,000.

WIFE IN DOUBT.

On the witness stand Mrs. Mary Kennedy Woodhouse, co-defendant in the suit, declared she had no knowledge as to the amount of her husband's fortune.

The reading of the deposition of Mrs. Lillian Hendricks McClellan, the divorcee with whom Douglas Woodhouse had a love affair in Washington, was completed. Mrs. McClellan said she was "neutral" in the alienation of affections suit. She denied the defendants had offered her inducements to look with favor on a marriage with Douglas.

COAL SCHOONER SUNK IN CRASH

Portland, Me., Nov. 10.—The two-masted schooner Samuel Hart, loaded with 300 tons of coal, collided off Small Point in Casco Bay with the ocean-going tug Wyoming and sank in ten minutes.

Captain Johnson and the three men of the crew were rescued by the Wyoming. The Hart was on her way to Belfast from Port Reading, Pa.

Captain J. B. Conover of the Wyoming and Captain Johnson refuse to make statements as to the cause, but it is reported the Hart was sailing without running lights. The Wyoming was seriously damaged.

BATTLE FIRE IN NORTH STATION

Hampered by dense smoke, firemen battled nearly an hour before quenching a $100 blaze in the train master's office, North Station.

A passerby was first to discover flames coming from the second floor office and sounded an alarm from Box 1315. Hoses were laid on the Havell street side. Careless use of matches is declared the cause of the fire.

Witnesses—Among the Diet members elected are two Communists.

LEAPS TO DEATH WEIGHTED AND BLINDFOLDED

Beverly, Nov. 10.—Joseph Pluff, sixty-five years old, waited to the heart of the J. J. Pope Lumber Company on Bridge street today, tied a bag containing a nation, three pounds of nails and a shoemaker's last around his body, fastened his cap to his head with a piece of rope, tied a handkerchief around his face and jumped into the water.

He was seen to leap by John Davis, a chauffeur, who, assisted by two other men, launched a boat and recovered Pluff's heavily-weighted body.

Pluff, according to the police, had been drinking heavily of late and had been separated from his family, who live on Park street, Beverly.

Bobbed Hair Is Doomed; Curls Coming Back

London, Nov. 10.—According to M. Marcel, pioneer of the Marcel wave, the death knell of bobbed hair has been sounded. At the hairdressers' exhibition in London many varieties of the style which will supersede the "bob" during the coming season are shown. Chief among these is the old-fashioned soft curl, popular in the eighties, the hair being parted in the centre, combed down very smoothly and finished with a cluster of curls over the ears.

Silken colored wigs are the latest fashion craze shown.

HUNTED BY 500, BABY WAS ASLEEP

New Haven, Conn., Nov. 10.—Jimmy Andrews, four and a half years old, who wandered from his home in Hamden and for whom 500 boy scouts, farmers and citizens searched nearly twenty-four hours, was found asleep on a bed of leaves in a ravine two miles from his home today. He has a bump on his forehead and his mother thinks he fell and upon arising lost his sense of direction.

WOMEN CLASH ON SISTERS' USE OF VOTE

Chicago, Nov. 10.—Remarks attributed to Miss Alice Paul, vice-president of the National Women's Party, in commenting in Washington on the defeat of all women candidates for membership in the next Congress, met criticism here today from Mrs. Mary Belle Spencer, a defeated candidate in the Illinois primaries. Mrs. Spencer is an attorney.

"This woman says women do not deserve success because they do not vote for women, and take their legal and physical life to women lawyers and doctors," Mrs. Spencer said. "She's wrong."

"The thing that makes me furious is that any woman should imply that women use their sex as a weapon in a political contest with men," Mrs. Winifred Mason Rock, elected to complete the unexpired Congressional term of her father, the late William E. Mason, said: "I do not think women are the slackers in the political battle that Alice Paul makes them appear. She is right, however, about women having to stand by women if they ever intend to get their new place in the sun."

REPORTER DIZZY AFTER TECH MIND TEST

The reporter staggered in following the examination to the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, where psychological tests were being conducted for raising the students.

"Great work," he said. "Horse, good, elegant, reliable, prodigious, absolutely, fortunate, auspicious."

"What about it?" he was asked. "That's part of the test," he panted. "That's the same opposite to the other part of the test. Then here's the number completion test."

"4, 5, 6, blank, blank, and you fill in the blank. Then there's the list of athletes with one thrown in that isn't, and the list of cabinet members with a ringer, and the book title with a bunch of authors, and commentary words, and—"

WORDS TESTS.
In his frenzied effort to explain the Tech intelligence tests he was asked:

However, it isn't as bad as it sounds. There's the "same, opposite, neither" test. It consists of a series of words in two columns, as follows:

Common	Music
Force	Animal
Desert	Relative
Prodigious	Dislike

The point of which is: Is one of the same as another? Is the opposite or is it neither? You fill 'em.

The number completion test is a list. There's a list of numbers, something like this:

2 4 5 3
You are required to complete the multiples of two in the blank spaces. To make it harder, they sometimes leave things up, as follows:

8 2 4 — 6
Then there's a series of questions along this line:

Lodge, Hughes, Mellon, Weeks, Hoover. You are required to pick out the name in the foregoing that doesn't belong. We picked Lodge, who doesn't belong in the list, because he's not a cabinet member and all the rest are.

ORIGIN OF SPEECH.
Similarly there was this list: Tennis, golf, baseball, chess, football. Chess doesn't belong, because all the rest are athletic games, and chess is a game of the mind. At least they claim it is.

Another question was asked in this manner:

The Origin of Speech was written by Huxley, Bacon, Wallace, Tyndall, Darwin.

The idea is to select the correct author.

The institute authorities state that the tests are only supplementary and that there is no intention to supersede the regular written examination. They were drawn up by Professor Charles L. Stone of the Dartmouth Department of Psychology, who came to Tech for that purpose.

BOASTER NAILED BY POLICE FOR BIG DOPE SALE

It came to the ears of the "vice squad" that Carmine Brenna of East Boston was openly boasting that he would peddle "dope" and the police yesterday "got" him. He would like to see it. Patrolman Francis L. Donahue is one of the most obliging men on earth. He would strive to satisfy Brenna.

About this time Miss Eleanor Venturillo came into the picture. The vice squad arranged a trap with her. At Grove and Orleans streets, two blocks from Brenna's lunch room in Maverick street, Miss Venturillo bought 400 grains of cocaine. The police say that she bought the "dope" from Brenna for $35. This is a big order, 400 grains, the usual retail sale to "dope" users is a grain or two grains, called "dicks." The regular rate is $2 a "dick." At that rate the 400 grains bought by Miss Venturillo would be worth $800.

The police assert that Brenna figured Miss Venturillo as a "vok" (other who would retail the "stuff") and that there would be some money coming back to him from the profits of such a sale, one of the biggest "dope" sales in East Boston Court since. He pleaded not guilty of violating the drug law and was held in $2500 for hearing next Thursday.

MISS VOSE MADE FIVE WILLS

Attorney Clarence L. Newton, today in Norfolk Probate Court, had her will set aside. She had drawn previous to the last will, now being contested by three brothers who were cut off. About $400,000 is involved in the estate.

The contestants alleged that undue influence was exercised by Newton, the special administrator, and that he advised Miss Vose to prepare a bequest of $30,000 outright and the income of a $40,000 trust fund for Miss Vose.

The witnesses entered a general denial, saying that he had accepted the position of special administrator at the request of Miss Vose after he had once declined.

A PROPOSITION'S brewing—and it takes rather mean—that girls who go to colleges shall take a special course in studying the duties of policemen till they learn enough of "Copper" science to adorn a city force. But what about the menace? It is only just a step from "Copper" to detective. Can't you see the danger there? As wives they'll all be slouching and undoubtedly get "hep" to all their husbands' little tricks. And then, Oh Man, beware! Circulation is the test. Read the "GREEN" and get the best.

GIRL JAILED AS HORSE THEIF AGAIN ESCAPES

Parkhurst, W. Va., Nov. 10.—A sheriff's force was searching today for a sixteen-year-old girl indicted for horse stealing, who has made her second escape from the county jail.

The fugitive is Virginia Smith. Since she first came into conflict with the authorities, the sheriff's force has been hunting for her. She was arrested several weeks ago on a charge of unloading a horse from a wagon at Valley Mills and riding away. She was again arrested on a charge of stealing a horse and escaped to Ohio on a pony. She was arrested when she returned to the home of a relative.

Today jail deputies caught a rope of bed clothes hanging from her cell on the third story. The girl had obtained a saw and cut the bars.

LOVE BABY AIDS APPEAL TO SAVE PAT SOMERSET

By ANNE DUNLAP.
New York, Nov. 10.—"I learned about the baby two days ago. It gave me a queer, depressed sensation. I couldn't get it out of my mind. So I've written this."

The letter was addressed to "Robert H. Tod, Esq., Commissioner of Immigration, Ellis Island, N. Y., and read:

"My Dear Commissioner—

"I have thought deeply since yesterday's proceedings before you, and respectfully and considerably request your opinion to withdraw from the case, and further to ask a withdrawal of an action against Somerset."

"I feel that regardless of what my personal feelings may be and the wrongs that have been done, there is another life—their child's life—that I should do my part in simplifying matters for that child."

"I repeat, I am requesting that after the most deliberate and careful thought, faithfully yours."

Canine Curfew Law Limits Hours for Barking

Lakewood, N. Nov. 10.—It resulted for the City Council to take all the joy out of a dog's life here, enacting a law prohibiting any and all dogs from barking after the curfew rings at night. It proves the old saying, that all things are possible with a City Council.

When the moon was especially bright at harvest time the dogs barked louder than usual and a committee of annoyed citizens demanded the new law.

Owners of dogs guilty of barking after hours will be fined $1 per bark.

'PEAT GASOLINE' FAKER GETS PRISON TERM
Minneapolis, N. Y., Nov. 10.—Louis Bourgeois, 34-year-old inventor of a machine he claimed would produce gasoline from Long Island peat, as a cost of two cents a gallon, was given the choice of serving a term at Sing Sing or returning to stockholders $45,000 they had invested in his scheme.

The collapse of Bourgeois' plans occurred in a Minneapolis courtroom a year ago. Sued by William H. Peat for the recovery of $1,000, he had invested in the Bourgeois Peat & Gasoline Corporation, the inventor handed his machine into court to prove it could do what he claimed. Peat was stuffed into the hopper, the crank turned, and gasoline issued from the other end, as per prospectus. It looked as though Bourgeois was going to be vindicated, until a court attendant with a machine of best bent began moving around the apparatus and discovered a hidden reservoir, which had been filled with gasoline prior to the demonstration.

Doubtless was a verdict for him $1,000, and the inventor was in debt for grand larceny on complaint of Henry O. Burr of Jamaica, a 14,000 investor.

In pronouncing sentence County Judge Smith characterized Bourgeois' machine as a "monumental fraud," and declared he could not let the defendant's age stand in the way of justice. The alternative to restitution to investors was fixed by the court as five to nine years at Sing Sing.

Bourgeois promised he would repay his victims with the proceeds of the sale of 10,000 acres of land in Georgia.

After an absence of ten days fourteen-year-old Helen O'Donnell of No. 281 East Eighth street, was found at the home of a friend who lived in the house directly across the street from the O'Donnell home. The girl said her mother had threatened to punish her for eloping and she went to the home of her friend, who sheltered her during the absence from her home.

CISSIE LOFTUS ARRESTED IN LONDON AS DRUG ADDICT

New York, Nov. 10.—London dispatches telling of the arrest of Marie Cécile ("Cissie") Loftus, for illegal possession of drugs, brought to the United States the first news for some time of an actress who in years gone by starred in this country and England on both the legitimate and vaudeville stages.

Cissie Loftus, who showed at an early age an aptitude at mimicry, London audience hailed her as a child prodigy for her imitation of Sarah Bernhardt, Yvette Guilbert and other celebrities of the period. American audiences were similarly delighted with her.

Finally she left vaudeville for dramatic, being notably successful as Costas with Sir Henry Irving in "Faust," "If I Were King" and "Peter Pan." But her clientele, in England as well as America, invariably demanded her return to the role in which she first excelled—that of a mimic.

"Cissie" Loftus always has been a picturesque figure. She started her followers on both continents when, during a vaudeville engagement in London, she doped with Justice Hambley McCarthy, the English dramatist, from whom she was divorced in America some years later.

In 1903 she was married to Dr. A. H. Waterman of Chicago, and announced her intention to abandon the stage.

GUARDING BOSTON VOTES

ON WATCH AT CITY HALL VAULTS
Detective and police on duty at door of vault in City Hall in which 274 boxes containing the City of Boston ballots are locked. The detective is there in the interests of Senator Lodge, pending a recount of his votes.

CHARGE FRAUDS IN HUB VOTE

United States District Attorney Robert O. Harris said: "We do not wish to trespass on the State, but there have been charges of fraud and we intend to protect ourselves. We are on the lookout for fraud before or after the recount of the ballots."

REDUCED ROOMS

The under cover rumors that another Newburg case was to be brought to light in Boston is ridiculed by friends of Colonel Gaston, who point out that Senator Lodge is fully as wealthy as he is. It is further pointed out that Senator Lodge controlled practically all the Federal patronage in this State, and that the machinery of the Department of Justice is under Republican control. U. S. District Attorney Harris was appointed as the result of Senator Lodge's efforts in his behalf.

The Gaston forces ridicule the charges of fraud, and say it is mere bluff on the part of the Lodge faction to induce Colonel Gaston to withdraw his demand for a recount. Both forces, nevertheless, rushed to get 1 before midnight with their petitions for a recount, as required by law.

The request for the use of detectives to guard the ballot boxes came to Election Commissioner Burton today from Charles F. Choate, Senator Lodge's legal representative in Boston.

It was granted, and at noon there appeared Walter A. Kennedy of No. 31 Leavitt street, Dorchester, who took his place on a chair near the vaults. The matter was brought to the attention of Mayor Curley, who decided it would be fair to have a policeman assigned to watch the detective. Patrolman Edward J. Boyle of Station Two was forthwith sent to the scene, and took a place on a chair beside Kennedy.

UNDER DOUBLE GUARD

Both will work until night, when they will be relieved. Kennedy by another detective sent by Mr. Choate and Boyle by another city policeman. The vaults will thus be under double guard until Monday, when the ballots will be taken to Faneuil Hall for the recount.

Charles F. Choate wrote Mr. Burton for permission to place two "watchmen" on guard on behalf of Senator Lodge.

"Not that we doubt the watchfulness always extended by the commission," the letter read, "but as a precaution for security under the circumstances."

Colonel Gaston and Mrs. Gaston will remain abroad for five weeks.

DAUGHTER OF LORD KNOLLYS WEDS CLERK

London, Nov. 10.—(By Radio to International News Service)—So lately had a new sensation today when Alexandra Knollys, daughter of Viscount Knollys, had-in-waiting to dowager Queen Alexandra, was married to Richard Cheekley, clerk in a tobacco store. Cheekley is the son of a former court usher. Viscount Knollys was formerly a secretary to King Edward.

SCREWDRIIVER FALLS 200 FEET; HITS WOMAN

New York, Nov. 10.—A half pound screwdriver, which rolled from a window sill on the nineteenth floor of a Sixth avenue building, landed on the head of Mrs. Ella Coleman, a passerby, penetrating her skull and brain.

This force accumulated by the small tool in its fall knocked Mrs. Coleman to the sidewalk and her left leg became paralyzed. At Bellevue Hospital, where her condition was described as critical, it was found the screwdriver had entered her head for about two inches.

No other one medium reaches 3,500,000 families in America.
No other one medium reaches 27% of all the people in America that can be reached by the printed English word.
No other one medium concentrates its circulation in the twelve most populous sections of America.
No other one medium offers advertisers the opportunity of using a full size newspaper page in COLOR (three colors and black)—in a magazine eagerly read weekly in more than one out of every five homes in the country.
No other one medium in the advertising world has shown such huge growth in so short a space of time—a growth that is the direct result of such responses secured for advertisers as have been entirely without a precedent in the whole history of modern selling or advertising.

"EXCLUSIVE" is the one word that adequately describes the tremendous sales-making energy of the American Weekly—a medium that has the largest circulation of any periodical published—a magazine that is intensively read by every member of the family in no less than three million five hundred thousand homes.

By the test of actual experience, by solid evidence of results obtained, the full color pages of newspaper size which the American Weekly offers advertisers have proved to be the most successful unit of publicity yet discovered.

That advertisers have been alive to the possibilities of this mighty sales force at their command, is evidenced by the tremendous increases in space used in the American Weekly—amounting, in some instances, to a thousand per cent.

These graphs strikingly illustrate how ten leading advertisers have increased their appropriations in The American Weekly

And these are only a few instances of the record increases made after thorough tests of the giant sales-producing power of The American Weekly for products of every type

IT IS obvious that such tremendous increases could only be based on RESULTS. It is proof unquestionable that tremendous mass circulation, concentrated on the great centers of mass population, does bring unprecedented results. And it is the best evidence that shrewd advertisers have proved that the use of FULL COLOR PAGES OF FULL NEWSPAPER SIZE is the most powerful means of moving merchandise ever placed at the disposal of manufacturers who seek, or have obtained, a distribution nation wide.

Q—When was the letter written?
A—In October, 1922.

Q—Did you go to see her between October, 1920 and January 1, 1921?

A—No.

Q—Did you write in answer to that letter? A—Yes.

Q—When did you see that letter
again after you wrote it?

A—I haven't seen it.

Q—Still you knew this girl was contemplating leaving your guardianship and was planning to go to an apartment by herself? A—Yes.

DISTURBED BY LETTER.
Q—Can you recall what was in that letter? A—I can not.

Q—Do you want us to understand that it didn't make impressions enough on your mind that you cannot tell a single word that was in that letter? A—I made no impression, but I can not say what was in it.

Q—You can't recall a word? A—
No.

Q—You were pretty well disturbed
when you read it? A—Yes.

Q—Were you disturbed on account of your own? A—No.

Q—On account of Lena Jardine?
A—No.

Q—Do you mean you were disturbed on someone else's account?

A—No.

Q—Who, Newell? A—No.

Q—Ellie Jardine? A—Yes.

Q—You didn't want Ellie to marry her and get control of the Gar-don Supply Co., did you? A—I didn't want her to marry him.

At the junction Attorney Naeson, representing Jardine, objected to the line of questioning and Attorney Sheehan then continued:

DID NOT DESTROY MESSAGE.
Q—Haven't you got her letter and her property? A—I have.

Q—When did you see that letter
last? A—When I mailed it.

Q—When her property was brought up from where it was?
A—In it? A—I do not know.

Q—Did you destroy it? A—No.

Q—What did you say to her in that letter? A—I cannot remember.

Q—You had considered if Ellie married Dorothy he might get the property of the Garson Supply Company, hadn't you? A—I had considered it.

Q—When did she tell you she wanted to marry the Tech student?
A—Once in 1919 and again in 1920.

Q—How near the time you talked with her about marrying Ellie Jardine? A—About a year after she wanted to marry Newell.

Q—Are the letters that he wrote to her in exhibit we have here?
A—Yes.

COUSIN WROTE DOROTHY.
Q—Did Dorothy, before you were appointed guardian, live with that boy on Long Island? A—She lived in her mother's home.

Q—Her uncle Jack lived there, too? A—Yes.

Q—Well little Jack lived with his father, didn't he? A—Yes.

Q—Did little Jack ever write to Dorothy? A—No.

Q—Did she ever get the letters?
A—No.

Q—You never gave her letters written by her cousin? A—I wouldn't say that.

Q—You didn't want her to get them did you? A—I wouldn't say that, either.

Q—Did you ever get any letters for Dorothy from little Jack? A—One letter.

WAS FOND OF JACK.
Q—Have you that letter?
A—I have.

Q—Why didn't you turn the letter over to Dorothy?
A—She was away.

Q—Didn't she leave any address?
A—No, she was in a hospital.

Q—Did she get Christmas cards from little Jack? A—No.

Q—Did she get part of your plan to have her not get those letters and cards? A—No, it was not.

Q—Do you think you are a fit man to be guardian of anybody?
A—I do most positively.

Q—Did you know that Dorothy was very fond of little Jack? A—Yes.

Q—Who told you that? A—I saw them playing together.

Q—Dorothy's mother thought a lot of little Jack, didn't she?
A—Yes.

Q—More than anyone else except Dorothy? A—Yes.

Q—Didn't you think that Christmas cards and letters would brighten the life of a little girl like Dorothy in an insane asylum? A—No.

Q—When she recovered the first time did you turn over the letters and cards to her? A—Gradually.

Q—Were any presents sent to her? A—Not to my knowledge.

Q—Do you know everything that was sent to your house for Dorothy?
A—Everything was turned over to me.

KEPT HER ISOLATED.
Q—Then you decided whether she should get them? A—Yes.

Q—When she was in the hospital you sent her no letters from little Jack? A—No.

Q—You did not want her to get them, did you? A—I did not.

Q—The second time you sent her to the asylum you didn't want her to get letters or communications?
A—No.

Q—You left an order to prevent her from communicating with her friends outside, didn't you? A—No.

Q—Like she has been getting letters since she has been in this time? A—I do not know.

Q—Do you know that people have been unable to get any information about Dorothy at the hospital the last twenty-four hours? A—No, sir.

Q—Did you give orders to prevent anyone seeing or communicating with her? A—I did a week ago.

Q—When did you tell her she was foolish to get married? A—The first Sunday in November, 1922.

Q—Did you at other times tell her foolish it was? A—Yes.

Q—Didn't you say that marriage was a failure? A—I didn't put it in that way.

Q—You told the girl it was foolish to marry, though? A—Yes, to marry Ellie Jardine.

Q—There was no doubt to you that she was corresponding with Newell? A—No.

Q—She told you? A—Yes.

LETTERS ARE READ.
Q—She showed you letters Newell wrote to her? A—Yes.

Q—You found out Newell was down to see her at the school? A—Yes.

Q—Will you produce the letters?
A—Yes.

Attorney Robert Naeson then raised an argument against the production of the letters in court. Attorney Sheehan wanted, he said, to read the letters first, and then, if he thought it desirable, to read them into evidence.

Attorney Naeson replied to this: "If you take them in your hand I shall demand that you read them about Sheehan then dramatically snatched the letters away from Naeson, waved them in the air and said:

"I intended to write right here,
but kind of expected a letter from you, and so you said you were having for camp on the 30th, thought I would write you there, but did not know if it was the same one this year."

"If I stay here much longer, I will be a real 'spick,' smoking dope, I am coming home either eling. It is hot as the dickens here

The following letter from William Newell to Dorothy Garson was first offered in evidence:

July 7, 1922.

"Dear Dot:—You told me thank you for that box of Page & Shaw's you surely are a dear to think of me away down here. We can't get anything like that here."

"I intended to write right here,

FEARED KLOOFMONT.
Jardine explained that it was during the discussion of Newell's attention to his play with two letters.

He said: "I asked her if she was hearing from him."

That was when she showed them.
Attorney Sheehan then continued his questioning.

Q—How long was Dorothy in April, 1922? A—Twenty, some on twenty-one.

Q—Why did you ask her about William? A—I knew it was my duty to be interested in her.

Q—When you told her she could not marry little Jardine, you considered it your duty? A—Yes.

Q—Did Dorothy plan to marry before she was twenty-one? A—Yes.

Q—When did you hear it? A—
The latter part of October, 1920.

Q—You understood that a word could marry? A—I she stopped.

GRAND JURY TO HEAR RECTOR
HALL'S WIDOW

New Brunswick, N. J., Nov. 10.
(By the Associated Press).—The State will withhold its plan for indulgences in the Hallville murder case until November 20 and then a new grand jury will be sworn in.
The convening of a grand jury has been delayed today. Meanwhile the investigation apparently was in the hands of the State.

New Brunswick, N. J., Nov. 10.
A sudden interruption came in the announced plan of officials to close their net around a woman and two men, one of the latter said to be the "actual slayer" of the Rev. Edward W. Hall and his "wonderland" choir singer, Mrs. Eleanor H. Mills.

The state had been set for "quick action." Wilbur A. Mott, Special Duty Attorney General in charge of the investigation, went to Somerville for the purpose of getting data for the convening of a grand jury and for the indictment of the woman and two men.

It was reported that after Judge Hill had talked for two hours with A. B. Gibbs, foreman of the grand jury, and others, that Judge Mott had been informed.

That the man and woman comprising the grand jury felt it improbable that they would be taken into custody, to receive definite and positive corroboration of the story given by Mrs. Jane Gibson. Mrs. Gibson is the woman father who also says he saw the rector's widow at the murder scene twice on the night of September 14-15.

That the grand jury would probably exercise its prerogative of calling Mrs. Hill and affording her the opportunity she demands of having her story weighed on the same scale as that of her manifestly inclined actress.

This viewpoint is also held by members of the grand jury. It is reported, and that is why a sort of "put up or quit" demand was served upon Judge Mott. The ultimatum, if it was such, is sufficient to cause the special Deputy Attorney General to hurry to Trenton to confer with his superior, Attorney General McCrann.

CALIFORNIA'S
'WET' MAJORITY
DWINDOLES

San Francisco, Nov. 10.—Related returns from isolated "dry" outposts threaten to overcome the 23,843 vote-2-3 against the California prohibition enforcement amendment voted on Tuesday.

Earlier figures indicated a de-cise "wet" victory. Reports from 508 precincts out of 401 in the State gave 32,816 votes in favor of the 15th amendment to the Federal Constitution and the Volstead Act statute law of the State, and 34,744 against the measure.

Columbia, O., Nov. 10.—Ohio defeated the beer and wine amendment to the State Constitution by a majority that may reach 200,000.

Plan Fight to Oust
Lodge as Leader

Washington, Nov. 10.—Republican leadership in the Senate after March 4 will be a subject of hot controversy, according to politicians here. The matter of retaining Henry Cabot Lodge or selecting some Senator more capable of pouring oil rather than vinegar, cannot be ignored or avoided.

A group of about fifteen Republican Senators for some time has desired the side-tracking of Lodge and the elevation of Watson of Indiana to the leadership.

A Pollette looms as the man at the hour in the next Congress. The Washington Senator may be able to dictate much of the legislation perfected by both the Senate and House.

such child physically unable to at-

"Use Sylpho-Nathol for musty cellars" Some cellars never seem to get right no matter how much they are aired. I know ours did for years. I am so fond about this like that I made Frank's life miserable about it.

"Of course, he did everything sprayed around with horrid smelling powders and messy materials. He even had a man come in and wash the walls again. But that undesirable damp, musty odor refused to budge.

"Then, one day Janice Colt told me of the wonderful things Sylpho-Nathol had done in her house.

"She was enthusiastic because it was so easy to use. Think of it, my dear, just a teaspoonful in a quart of warm water! It makes the stinkiest-smelling, pearl-gray solution ready for instant use.

"Sylpho-Nathol is 45% times stronger than carbolic acid—so you can imagine what it does to germs. It is safe to have about, too—the druggist says it is no more dangerous than a cake of scouring soap. And it doesn't roughen or hurt your skin one bit. You'll like its faint, pleasant odor, I know. Just buy a bottle and see for yourself!

"It's a pleasure to go into our cellar now. Sylpho-Nathol has made it so sweet and clean and healthy. But the cellar isn't the only place to use it.

"I use it every day—in the mop water, because it destroys the germs that are in dirt and dirt. I pour it down the sink drain—because it keeps such places free from the slightest trace of odors. It has made me forget that there is such a thing as a garbage can.

"Of course, I use it regularly around the bathroom, toilet, and toilet fixtures and as a flush for the toilet bowl!

Sylpho-Nathol comes in four handy sizes, 15c, 35c, 65c, and $1.25. Most good grocers and druggists have it. If yours hasn't, he can get it just ask for it by the name—Sylpho-Nathol.

BOXING SLOWS DOWN SOMERSAULT IN DECISION

PERRY CASE STARTS NEW PANG

By JACK CONWAY.

The Boxing Commission is under fire once more. It has rendered another one of those unique decisions for which it has made itself famous.

Referee George Freeman has stopped the Shade-Perry bout in the seventh round because Perry was holding, and also because he was of the opinion that the Pittsburgh man was not trying. Freeman says Perry made no claim of having been injured until after he returned to his corner.

The referee very properly ordered that Perry's money be held up until the matter could be aired before the Boxing Commission.

The Arena A. C., under whose direction the bout was staged, later received an order from the Boxing Commission to pay Perry despite the fact that he refused to accept the decision.

Perry's case, the commission has apparently reversed its own decision of a few weeks ago when it refused to allow either Jack Malone or Johnny Karr to be paid after they were tossed out of the ring by Referee Jerry Moore.

At that time the commission appeared to the Attorney-General's office for legal advice. It then announced that it could not order either Malone or Karr to be paid as the referee had decided that it was "not a contest." The commission went on at length to state how it did not have any authority to reverse the finding of the referee. It was hinted at the time that the real reason for this decision was because a member of the commission was at the round when Moore made his decision and had failed to act.

Regardless of whether Freeman was right in declaring that Perry was not trying, he says this is the reason why he stopped the contest. The referee further states that Perry did not complain of any injury, and that his work in the ring was not handicapped by an injured ankle or any other injury.

Therefore, if the referee is to be believed, the reason why the bout was stopped was because Perry was not boxing as well as he is capable of doing.

The referee, of course, may have been in error in arriving at this decision, but the commission has already ruled that the verdict of the third man in the ring is final.

What valid reason can the commission give why Perry should be paid without making his referee look ridiculous?

Even if it should be shown that Perry had injured a leg, it is a fact in his log, as he claims, this fact

THE OTHER LEADERS. They have leaders furnish most of the amusement at the foot-ball games, and don't get any credit for it. It's a pity that the two of the big battle, who are King and the king, who are in perfect shape for tomorrow's crucial contest. I have trained faithfully for ten years, and am confident that I can now wear my arms in a fashion that will defy understanding, even on the part of the master mind. Having played the games all summer, I can now watch our boys lose, and still keep smiling. The slight row, which hampered my best effort a week ago has vanished, and it will not be my fault if the quarterback is able to make his signals heard tomorrow.

His little girl, 'She' Boom, chirped as follows: "Nothing has been left to chance. You can say for me I'm ready. I have practiced jumping up and down until I can hit the ball in my room ten times a row. It has made me bald headed and wrecked my arches, but it's all for Alma Marie. I have run two laps on the mile track every day for a week, and I am sure I don't want to blow that off. A special course with Fokine has given me a few extra steps that will knock the other birds dead."

FOOTBALL ETIQUETTE. If you feel chilly at the game tomorrow, it'll be easy enough to start a hot argument. If you're warm, try to grab off some good looking lady, and her coat will knock you out. If you feel faint, listen to the crowd hoot and get the air. If the excitement is too much for you, offer some of it to the guy sitting next to you. If your team is behind, pull out the flask, and then you'll get a head.

If the bird in front of you keeps hooting up, swap seats with his wife. She can see through his all right.

A RAPP'S FABLES. ONCE there was a chap at a football game. A perambulator, the bird sitting next turned around and said: "What a dumb play! Did you see the way his interference stopped that runner. No wonder they have to get licked every year. Did you ever see such a poorly coached team?" "Really," replied our hero, "I don't know a great deal about this game."

He was the only male in the crowd who hadn't been a star on his college team, when football was a civil human's game. Moral—There actually are such things.

PICK WINCHESTER TO BEAT WATERTOWN

By FRED C. LANE.

With the exception of the Winchester-Watertown clash at Watertown, school football players will spend a quiet afternoon learning new shifts and plays. This contest is important. Winchester is in a fair way to annex the championship of the Mystic Valley League. Watertown has not lived up to the reputation of past years on the gridiron. Winchester held the Milton Academy team, champions of the Private School League, to a 6 to 4 tie, and so the favorite.

Close followers of the Winchester eleven look for a big score. Winchester has worked the overhead game to perfection. It was a forward pass play that put them on even terms with Milton Academy after they had trailed for two periods.

Watertown has a real star in Kewickian, quarter and halfback. Unless this sensational half has the cooperation of his teammates there is doubt that he will shine. He has been a stumbling block to all of Watertown's opponents, but one boy can't beat eleven.

Winchester has a snappy backfield in Kelley, Weiner, French and Kendrick. Weiner and French are both satisfactory track performers over the century. Should they break through the Watertown line there is little chance that either will be caught.

Reverse High Looks for Game for Tomorrow. The withdrawal of Gloucester High from the North Shore League has left Reverse High without a game for Saturday. Unless Coach Bob Korte makes arrangements with one out-of-town team, the Braves eleven will be at liberty for the week-end.

Julius Martin, halfback on English High's football eleven will replace the Braves.

The Middlesex School eleven will wind up its season tomorrow with St. Osgood's School eleven, at Newport, N. H.

While Framingham High protects Captain Wiles, fans of Newwood think equally well of Captain Dave Foren. These two stars will meet in the Framingham-Newwood game tomorrow.

Coach John Master of Winthrop refused to allow Lynn Chassey to postpone his league game with his school that they might play Salem High.

The playing of Arthur Connolly of Maiden High will take an important part in the game with Somerville. Not another player in Jack McDonald's backfield can tear up the line as he can.

Battling Siki Considered Menace; to Come to U. S.

Battling Siki is now expected to come to America as a result of his being barred from fighting Joe Bicket in England.

Tex Rickard has Siki signed for a bout in New York. Rickard wants to put the conqueror of Georges Carpentier against Kid Norfolk and thus eliminate Siki from the fight parade.

Siki is considered a much overrated fighter. He would make a great card with Norfolk but he probably will not be worth a dime as a drawing card after the Black Panther gets through with him.

Siki would like to meet a setup, but he must fight Norfolk in his American debut or not fight here.

Siki has broken every rule of training since winning from Carpentier. Harry Wills, Kid Norfolk, Danny Edwards, George Robinson and the other negro boxers consider Siki a menace who should be forced out of the boxing game.

BOSTON CLUBS WOULD STAGE SIKI BOUT

Having Siki, barred from boxing in France and England, will show in Boston that if local promoters have their way. The matchmakers of Boston clubs are anxious to stage the fight.

B. C. IN SECRET PRACTICE FOR GAME WITH BAYLOR BEARS

COACH DRILLS SQUAD ON SURPRISE PLAYS

Secret practice by the Boston College squad these days can be viewed from an airplane. Coach Cavanaugh allows an spectator to watch him while he is teaching the Eagle a few new plays for use against Baylor. That the team may have to full benefit of the surprise party is the purpose.

About the plays nothing can be said, except that they will be the right kind of play for such a team as Baylor. A keen observer may notice that the backs will carry the ball, that Darling will do the punting, that the line will give true interference, and that in general that every man on the Eagle squad will do what he is supposed to do and do it at the proper time.

The clear, brisk weather was welcomed by coach and players, as it furnished a stimulus for a big, snappy session. Darling and Bonolan drove the first two eleven up and down the field while Coach Cavanaugh and his assistant, "Older" Jay, watched the work with keen eyes.

Eagle Will Be Looking for Stars Tomorrow

If the long, after dark sessions continue, the Eagle players will be looking for stars when they line up at Baylor field tomorrow afternoon. The kind they will see are likely to be found right on the field among the Baylor eleven and not where they usually are when they pile up the hill after practice.

Tony Comerford, the Eagle left wingman, has been awarded a title by the sport editor of the Herald, the R. C. C. Comerford, Camerford, diagnostician, he is called. The Herald scribe claims that Comerford dropped eleven out of twelve plays in the Lafayette game correctly before the opposing quarterback had started on the second series.

Not Surprising to Those Who Have Seen Him Play

This is not surprising to those who have seen the Eagle wingman in action. Comerford is in fine fettle for the Baylor game and promises to live up to his new title.

Comerford has been playing football in the last two seasons at the Herald, and has been at that position on Saturday. Comerford is a veteran of last year's squad who has played well on the few occasions he was called upon. He is not a heavy man, but he is fast, and a good line plunger.

Boston College line will be slightly outwitted by the Baylor line. The Bears line averages about 150 pounds while the Eagle average will be 135. Baylor, right tackle for the Bears, weighs 210 pounds, while Weatherly, who plays guard, tips the scales at 215.

Baylor Has a Much Lighter Backfield

Baylor, however, has a much lighter backfield. While the Eagle average weight is 177 pounds, the Bears will average about 141. The Texas backfield quartet are short on weight, but long on brains. They are swift, and their plays develop. The improved defense of the Baylor team seems to give them a slight advantage.

Baylor's trick plays have been highly successful against both western eleven, but in their meeting last Fall, the Bears pulled the hidden ball play to a successful outcome. If the Eagle line is sufficiently alert, Baylor will have an in-exhaustible fund of trick plays to suit Cavanaugh's men.

Bear Will Be Dangerous Even in the Last Minute

No matter what the Bears are able to do in the first fifty nine minutes of play, they will be dangerous even in the last minute. The Eagle players who took part in the game last Fall admit that the Bears will keep them keyed up until the final whistle.

The Baylor game has aroused such enthusiasm among the B. C. students that it is witnessed usually

GREEN ELEVEN GIVEN GREAT SEND-OFF

Harvard's N. H. Nov. 10—Shooting through a gauntlet of two thousand wildly-cheering undergraduates, the Dartmouth football squad started "On to Cornell" at midnight. Football mad, the whole student body was out to give the team one of the most enthusiastic send-offs a big Green eleven ever received.

Fifty-five men, including players, coaches, trainers and managers, made up the squad that entrained for New York to await the battle with the "Red Terror" from Ithaca at the Polo Grounds tomorrow.

Dartmouth is grim and determined before the game. Cornell is betting as high as five to one against the Green winning, and is betting even money that Cornell will win by over eighteen points.

But a quiet, determined confidence reigns in the Dartmouth camp and in the Northern Hills.

The men who made the trip in addition to the regulars are quarterbacks Stevens and Smith; halfbacks Allen, Bolles, Calder, Slegfried and Wright; fullbacks Foster, Lee and Smith; ends Goldstein, Gordon, Haggenbuck, Maloney and Watkins; tackles Roe, Thompson and Whitaker; guards Carpenter, Murphy, Swenson and Swenson; and centers Mille and Montgomery.

RED CROSS PENNANTS FOR FOOTBALL CARS

Led by Mrs. Bowen Tufts, captain of the volunteer motor corps of the Red Cross, a special squad of ambulance drivers will take about 1,000 Red Cross pennants on cars parked outside the Harvard Stadium Saturday.

Dartmouth will start his regular backfield of Mille at quarter, Harris and Captain Chick Burke at halves and Larry Levitt at fullback, while the ends will be Lynch and Bjerkman, the tackles Harris and Nedlinger, the guards Achenbach and Taylor, and Moore, centre.

The whole college is football mad over the game. Painted slogans all over the community, the cheer meeting Wednesday night, and the send-
